Re: Jefferson Circuit Court
Action No. 106150
George P. Stober, et al.
vs. Jefferson County,
Jefferson County Fiscal Court,
Jefferson County Works Dept.

Gentlemen:

Agreed Order Dismissing Settled was entered in the above styled action in September, 1968. Paragraphs 3 and 4 of that Agreed Order read as follows:

"3. Jefferson County, et al., by counsel, agree to remove, dispose, or by other appropriate means, clean the debris from the George P. Stober tract and return the tract to as natural a condition as possible.

4. It is further agreed by Jefferson County, by counsel, that this work shall be, as to Paragraphs No. 1 and 3 hereof, completed within six months from the date of this Agreement, and if same is not completed, Plaintiff, George P. Stober, may have the work done and the County agrees to reimburse him for any costs incurred."

As of this date Paragraph 3 of that Agreed Order has not been complied with. I enclose an estimate received by Mr. Stober for the doing of this work. Unless I have heard from you within two weeks of the date of this letter, Mr. Robert Foster will be employed to do this work for the sum stated in the letter.

Yours very truly,

Joseph P. Pike
